HIPAA PRIVACY NOTICE

We understand that medical information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting the confidentiality of your medical information. As part of our routine operations, we create a record of the care and services you receive. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements.

Federal law requires us to: 1) make sure that medical information that identifies you is kept private; 2) give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices; and 3) follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

How we may use and disclose medical information about you:

For Treatment. We may use medical information about you to provide you with products or services.

We may disclose your health care information to other healthcare professionals for the purpose of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. We may also disclose health information about you to people outside our practice who may be involved in your medical care, such as family members or others we use to provide services that are a part of your care.

For Payment. We may use and disclose health information about you so that treatment, products, and services you received from us may be billed to and payment may be collected from you, the insurance company, or third party.

For Health Operations. We may use and disclose health information about you for facility operations.

These uses and disclosures are necessary to run the facility and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care.

Appointment Reminders: We may use and disclose health information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment at our practice.

Treatment Alternatives. We may use and disclose health information to tell you or recommend products or services that will benefit you.

Health-Related Benefits and Services. We may use and disclose health information to tell you about health-related benefits or services that may benefit you.

*Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. We may release health information about you to a family member who is involved in your health care. We may also give information if asked for by law enforcement officials, such as in response to a court order or subpoena.

*Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law.

Changes to this Notice of Privacy Practices

Elijah Brown Family Dental Care reserves the right to amend this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time in the future, and will make the new provisions effective for all information that it maintains. Until such amendment is made, Elijah Brown Family Dental Care is required by law to comply with this notice.

Elijah Brown Family Dental Care is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your health information.
